COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrapper and attest its correctness under oath, are daily giving in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody's scrutiny, being the result of having the search light of investigation turned fully upon his formulae, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examining the formula on their bottle wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those external conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-over-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption. Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

KILLED IN PLAY.

George Tracy, the nine-year-old son of J. E. Tracy, of Medford, Long Island, died Monday night from injuries received from some of his companions while playing Indians.

Last Thursday they had a fine game. Mrs. Tracy, sitting indoors, heard the boys war whooping up and down the street. Pretty soon three of the big boys caught George and dragged him to a tree in the back yard. One of them brought a rope and the other two held the little fellow while his hands and feet were made fast. They set him up against the tree and wound the rope around him from head to foot very tightly. George did not seem to mind.

It would be no sort of an Indian game if the white man should escape of his own strength before the coming of the soldiers. So they drew the rope all the tighter. One of the tuns lay just under George's ribs, and as the bigger boys hauled the line dog into his left side. That made him squeal. Mrs. Tracy, knowing the difference between a war whoop and a shout of pain, ran out of the house. She found George tied up so tightly that he couldn't budge, with the strand of rope that crossed his stomach almost out of sight. She got the boy free and took him indoors. As stated above, his injuries proved fatal.

NEGRO HELD.

A letter addressed to Mrs. Catherine Berry, a white employee of the assessor's office of the District of Columbia and alleged to have been written by Garrett Wormley, a mulatto driver of the assessor's carriage, was yesterday made the basis of an indictment against Wormley charging him with sending improper matter through the mails. He was held on the sum of $1,000.

In one portion of the letter the writer makes plain his attitude toward white people by writing:

"Mr. D., when he was head of the office, told me not to stand for any ball-dancing; the majority of people in the building were no whiter than I. I have sense enough to understand."

The tone of the letter indicates that the writer had previously caused Mrs. Berry annoyance, and that she had ignored the receipt of previous missives. In the letter, the dictation of which cannot be quoted, Wormley invites the white woman to meet him at Dupont circle or Massachusetts avenue extended, between the hours of 6 and 9 o'clock.

"Now if I misconstrued," the signer finishes the letter, spelling badly, "drop and make no reply to your ever sincere, Revue."

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

William Bradley, colored, of Laurel, Md., who was employed on the farm of Mr. Ober, at Contee, near Laurel, was instantly killed by lightning yesterday afternoon. Bradley, together with another farm-hand, had been out in the field gathering hay, and they were on their way to the barn when the lightning struck, killing Bradley instantly, stunning the other farm hand and the horse, and setting fire to the hay and wagon which were burned.

News of a remarkable play of lightning at an isolated point in Chaves county, New Mexico, Sunday, has just reached Santa Fe. During a thunderstorm lightning struck the house of W. E. Rall, a homesteader, and H. N. Rutherford, who, with his family was at the Rall home, was killed. Following this at intervals of one minute eleven more bolts struck the house, each shaking an occupant, though not fatally. There were thirteen persons in the house at the time of the storm. The last stroke set the house on fire, but the flames were extinguished by Mrs. Rall with buckets of water.

FINED WHITE WOMAN.

Because of threats made by her negro neighbors Mrs. Norah Garrison, 18 years old, living in Washington, felt it necessary to protect herself, she says, and carried a weapon while on her own premises. Yesterday she was convicted of carrying concealed weapons and Judge Kimball sentenced the young white woman to pay a fine of $50 or go to jail for 30 days. The young woman, through Attorney James J. O'Shea, has taken an appeal to a higher court and her friends are rallying to her support in the case. The black defendants of the neighborhood were out in force at Police Court yesterday morning, and they testified that Mrs. Garrison armed herself Monday afternoon and threatened to shoot them. Their story was believed by the judge in preference to the testimony of the white woman. Mrs. Garrison declared that the weapon was in full view and she was supported in this by two witnesses. Her counsel argued that she had a right to protect herself when threatened, and especially so when she was on her own premises.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

DO YOU KNOW? ROSEMONT HAS

An avenue more beautiful than any suburb of Washington. With a double roadway and ten feet of parking down its entire length. Six feet more of parking adjoining fine granolithic sidewalks on both sides. Lots with fine, high terraced fronts above the sidewalks on each side. And other lots with an elevation only 30 feet below the surface of the city reservoir. There are only a few of the facts about beautiful ROSEMONT, but if you will let me show you over the property, I will tell you of its many other attractions and advantages to home builders and investors. The lots on this beautiful avenue are rapidly being taken up, and any one of those left will be worth more than present prices in a very short time.
